

SOFTWARE RELEASE NOTES

MCS-CONFIG Version 14.00H 06/27/2013

Updates from previous versions:

New Features:

1. In MicroMag config types V12 on the AO Info Screen adding a new AO Control Type to the drop down list that will be called 2-10 volt and will be saved as index # 5.

Bug Fixes:

1. In ALL config types V14 when the unit info front page is printed the file path is missing and the text states that the config type is MicroMag when it is a Magnum type. Resolution: Modify the test for the config version to print the file path and Magnum for V14 config versions.
